WE ARE GETTING CLOSE !

The construction crew is busy installing cabinets, moldings and light fixtures; painting is coming right along. The elevator will be installed the first two weeks of August and our refurbished chandeliers are due to be delivered by August 8. Installation of the organ will come at the end of this month and the pews will be delivered the first part of September. Rodney Loflin will be heading a crew to begin preparations for landscaping this month. A firm completion date will be announced soon!

A Community Service for *Hope and Renewal

When tensions are high in our political context and there is blood on our hearts and hands and streets, we come together. We come confessing our failings and asking for forgiveness. We come seeking hope and to be renewed by God's love and grace. It's a start. It's a step. The ministers of Montgomery County hope you'll join us for...

A Community Service of Hope and Renewal

on Sunday, August 14th

at East Montgomery High School Auditorium at 6:00 p.m.

May God be with all our communities as we seek both the hope and renewal that comes through our relationship with Jesus, the Christ.
